Where did your lunch come from?

What's on the lunch menu today? Some of the food on your plate today has come from countries far away from where you live.

Today's starter is soup made with broad beans from Africa and pepper from Vietnam. The main course is chicken and rice. The rice comes from China. The dessert is fruit salad with cherries from Turkey, bananas from India and raspberries from Russia. Would you like some vanilla ice-cream with your fruit salad? The vanilla comes from Madagascar. How about a glass of milk? Camel milk, from Saudi Arabia!

Other things also come from far away. Your wool jumper might be from sheep that live in Australia!

Unscramble the anagrams. Use the pictures to help you.

1. reap 2. olemn 3. pepla 4. nogare 5. wiki 6. warstyebr 7. rageps

Draw next to the fruit you like and next to the fruit you don't like.

Match the words and the pictures:

a plate	pepper	a jumper	wool	a raspberry
bananas	cherries	vanilla	broad beans	a camel
